Meditation

I saw God bare his soul one day
Where all the earth might see
The stark and naked heart of him
On lonely Calvary.
There was a crimson sky of blood
And overhead a storm;
When lightning slit the clouds
And light engulfed his form.

The Naked Soul of God

Beyond the storm a rainbow lent
A light to every clod,
For on that cross mine eyes
beheld
The naked soul of God."

William Stidger

Prelude/Lighting of the Candles

* Call to Worship

The people stood yelling,

“Crucify!”

and it breaks our hearts every time. For Jesus’ death occurs every time someone is ignored, mistreated, oppressed.

“Crucify!”

tears away at God’s Beloved.

A Prayer of Reconciliation for Good Friday

Ever-present God, on this Good Friday night, our whole world is engulfed in shadows as we remember the story of Jesus’ death.

We confess that we want to push the fast-forward button on this familiar story because it hurts so much.

It hurts to think of the betrayal and arrest of Jesus.

It hurts to imagine Jesus abandoned and suffering on the cross with only a faithful few watching him breathe his last breath.

It hurts to watch your light overtaken by the shadows of the world.

But we must find our place in this crucifixion story and feel the pain that is there:

The pain of the world,
of faithless decisions; of betrayal; of injustice.
Jesus entered that pain out of faithfulness to you and to us, to witness to the Truth that is Justice, Wholeness and Love.

We confess, we are afraid to enter this pain with Jesus.
Strengthen us with your courage;
offer glimpses of hope in the shadows of death;
let us know you are present
with us here in this moment of pain;
now as always.

Assurance of Blessing

Beloved followers of Jesus, it is okay to feel hurt and uncomfortable as you enter into this story and imagine your place in it. Know that God meets you in the story, with comfort as well as challenge; with courage as well as love.

Prayer

Ever Present God, we are amazed that Jesus, nearing his death, reached out to comfort and empower those dearest to him. At the foot of his cross, he called his mother and his beloved disciple into a new community. Give us the grace and courage to join them there, welcoming all who struggle and grieve into this new covenant of love and grace.

For whom shall we pray, in our world, our community, our family, under the shadow of the cross?

Sixth of the Shadows
